

Finance expert intern with Full Time extension possible – Excellent learning environment with great opportunities.

Role overview description

(To start: ASAP, start from min. 4 Months duration internship with possibility of extension/on-board)

For the role at hand, the goal is to provide support for the financial activities that a business requires and that an early start-up in funding search needs. For this, as a Finance expert, you will be the main point of contact to handle the financial reporting, finance forecasts and internal administration for open subsidy accounts. At SolvGE, the core goal is to help green energy transition by the hand of our hydrogen peroxide production facilities. To ensure this goal is met, we look for an ambitious, talented young finance expert who shares these goals.

The COMPANY

SolvGE is a company focusing on novel and advanced technology for solving green energy and providing green energy global accessibility at ease. SolvGE recently has invented a patented technology leads to the world's first portable and scalable Hydrogen Peroxide Printer for global accessibility of Hydrogen Peroxide energetic chemical to the customer at ease irrespective of location and time. But it doesn't stop here, with this technology SolvGE aims at tackling the energy market by exploiting the energy within Hydrogen Peroxide in a safe and efficient manner.

- We offer great mentoring programs for our technology with quality and standard.
- We're on the cutting edge of novel technology in the field of green propellants with the sight in the future developments of energy generation through fuel cells and others.
- We believe in friendly/healthy working environment.

The POSITION and TASK at hand

We're looking for a finance expert intern with interest in sustainable and green energy technologies and ambition to help a growing start-up to become a world leading company in the field of green energy and hydrogen peroxide procurement. The task at hand is to support and lead the efforts in making SolvGE self-sustainable in terms of financial accounting, reporting for investors and forecasting our resource investment. You will work alongside engineers to support technical doubts that may influence the work you perform. A bit more about what we will expect from your work:

- 0-2 yr. of relevant experience in a finance position role. (Startup experience is desired, but student teams are also valid)
- Relevant studies (BSc./MSc.) on finance-related courses.
- Prepare reports and finance documents for potential investors
- Support and organise administration procedures to smooth future 3rd party audits.
- Deal, manage and handle subsidy accounts and providers.
- Oversee expenditure and advise on streamlining purchases and approaches.
- Opportunity to work with novel and challenging technology with the goal always in using our engineering abilities to make sustainable technologies for a better world of tomorrow.
- Remote working possibility.

- Ability to be a team-player, projects are SolvGE require of different expertise, so being able to communicate horizontally is required.
- Duration: indefinite contract possible after start an internship of min. 4 months, extendable upon agreement.
- For more information, please contact us as some of the information is under confidentiality agreement.
- English professional proficiency in reading, writing and speaking is required.
- The position is intern full time (35-40h. / week), to be started as soon as possible.

The LOCATION

Our offices are located at the Innovation Hub at L&R faculty, TUDelft: 12th floor, Kluyverweg 1, 2629 HS Delft and our workshop will be at the Chemical laboratory of L&R faculty.

WHY SHOULD YOU APPLY?

- Opportunity to work with novel and challenging technology
- Excellent growth in knowledge and advancement opportunities
- Remote working opportunities
- We are a young start-up with high ambitions and a solid business case for our technology in the energy sector, come help us SOLVe Green Energy!

HOW TO APPLY?

Please send your application with your CV and Motivation letter at info@solvGE.com